

CBIZ Releases Strategic Analysis on President Trump's First 100 Days and Implications for the Middle Market

April 30, 2025

CLEVELAND--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 30, 2025-- CBIZ, Inc. (NYSE: CBZ), a leading national professional services advisor, today released a new executive guide, "President Trump's First 100 Days: Impacts and Strategies for Middle Market Leaders." The piece offers a clear framework for understanding the administration's early policy shifts and operational, financial, and regulatory implications for the middle market.

Drawing on industry insights from CBIZ leaders across its service lines of Accounting, Tax, Advisory, Benefits, Insurance and Technology, as well as its dedicated focus on key industries, the guide identifies key inflection points — including tariffs, changes to tax policy, regulatory enforcement shifts, and labor policy developments — and outlines strategic considerations for leadership teams preparing for continued volatility.

"Businesses today need more than awareness of policy changes. They need an action plan," said Mark Baran, Managing Director of CBIZ National Tax Office. "Businesses that take a strategic forward-looking approach now will be positioned not just to adapt but to lead. Our latest resource is designed to equip leaders with the insights they need to proceed confidently."

The report offers a structured playbook for immediate action, including risk mitigation strategies, integrated tariff solutions, compliance recalibration, and dynamic tax planning approaches.
